

Class Parties

We will have three class parties. The first party is our Christmas party on December 20, 2011. God's love party will be held on February 14, 2012. Our last party is the Resurrection party on April 5, 2012. I will let you know about each party when they get closer. Each parent was asked to sign up for one of the parties which they will be in charge of. Each party can consist of a game or activity and a story to help us remember why we are celebrating the special day. There can be snacks and drinks for everybody at each party.

Competitions

First grade competes in two competitions. There will be a spelling Bee in December that your child can practice for in advance. The next competition is our Speech Meet which will be in January. The first graders will choose a poem or a short Bible passage to memorize and recite before judges. Both competitions will be in our room, and the students will be competing against each other.

Nursing Home Visits

We will be visiting a nursing once a month.
